

Challenges in the Humanities and Social Sciences: New Study Programs and Quality Assurance at the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Zagreb – HKO-FFZG (European Social Fond – Effective Human Resources)

Coordinating institution: Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Zagreb

Project timeframe: 2019-2022

Partner institutions: Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Osijek, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Rijeka, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Split, University of Zadar, Faculty of Croatian Studies, Croatian Catholic University, Faculty of Electrical Engineering and Computing in Zagreb

Project goal: As part of the project "Challenges for Social Sciences and Humanities: New Studies and the Quality System of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Zagreb", a reform of study programs is being implemented in the following fields: psychology, linguistics, phonetics and English. Qualification standards (at undergraduate and graduate levels) and occupational standards are being developed for the four mentioned scientific disciplines, and a revision of study programs is being carried out with the aim of increasing the relevance of exit competences. With these activities, the project directly contributes to the achievement of the goals of the document "New Skills Programmes for Europe", which emphasizes the need to increase the relevance of students' exit competences. The revision of study programs in accordance with occupational standards and qualification standards contributes to the achievement of goal 1. "Improve study programs by consistently implementing the Bologna reform principles and redefine the competences acquired in them" in the higher education segment of the Strategy of Science, Education and Technology of the Republic of Croatia.

Members of the project team from FHSS - ST: Nataša Stojan, Mirjana Semren, Ivana Petrović