

Empowering Literacy in Adolescents through. Creative Engagement with Comics - COMMIX (Erasmus +, 2016-1-BG01-KA201-023657)

Coordinating institution: Institute of Technology and Development Foundation (Bulgaria)

Head of the project: full. prof. Ivana Batarelo Kokić (batarelo@ffst.hr)

Project timeframe: October 2016. – September 2018.

Partner organizations: Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Split, Institute of Technology and Development Foundation (Bulgaria), Centre For Advancement of Research and Development in Educational Technology LTD-CARDET (Cyprus), Douka Ekpaideftiria AE – Palladion Lykeion Ekfpaideuthria Douka (Greece), Meath Community Rural and Social Development Partnership Limited (Ireland), INNOVADE LI LTD (Cyprus), University of Pitești (Romania), Spoleczna Akademia Nauk (Poland)

Project goal: The ERASMUS + KA2 project COMMIX was aimed at encouraging the use of interactive comics in the educational environment and studying the possibilities for significant improvement of skills in the field of literacy, science and other subjects, especially for students aged 11-16 and at-risk students. The key goals of the COMMIX project are to ensure innovative pedagogical methods for the use of comics and digital storytelling, and to strengthen participants in the educational process for the use of innovative methods based on ICT, with the aim of improving attitudes towards reading among young people.

Members of the project team: full. prof. Ivana Batarelo Kokić, assoc. prof. Tonći Kokić, assoc. prof. Andreja Bubić, assoc. prof. Vesna Kostović-Vranješ, assist. prof. Ivanka Buzov, assist. prof. Ines Blažević, dr. sc. Anita Mandarić Vukušić, dr. sc. Snježana Dimzov