

Establishment of the Institute of Korean Studies and Training Plans for the Experts of Koreanology at the University of Split in Croatia (AKS-2018-INC-2230010)

Coordinating institution: Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences

Lead researcher: prof. dr. sc. Boris Škvorc (bskvorc@ffst.hr)

Project timeframe: June 2018. – June 2021.

Project description: In addition to teaching Korean language and culture, with the participation of lecturers and language instructors from HUFS (Hankuk University of Foreign Studies), the Center for Interdisciplinary and Korean Studies was established as part of the research project, which resulted in the publishing of a new research journal in the field of cultural studies and undertaken comparative research in the fields of cultural transfers, cultural and literary comparative studies, multimedia and comparative film and visual studies.

Members of the team: prof. dr. sc. Boris Škvorc, izv. prof. dr. sc. Gloria Vickov, izv. prof. dr. sc. Antonela Marić, dr. sc. Brian Willems, dr. sc. Srećko Jurišić, dr. sc. Eni Buljubašić, dr. sc. Simon Ryle, dr. sc. Slobodan Jokić, prof. dr. Kim Sang Hun, prof. dr. sc. Marko Dragić, prof. dr. sc. Marina Marasović-Alujević, Ivona Zebić Mitrović.