

Further development of Centre for Cross-Cultural and Korean studies, and Training plans for Experts in Korean and Cross-Cultural Studies at the University of Split \(AKS-2021-INC-2230012\)

Coordinating institution: Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences

Lead researcher: prof. dr. sc. Boris Škvorc (bskvorc@ffst.hr)

Project timeframe: June 2021. – June 2024.

Project goal: The new three-year project period continues the already realized goals of the first project (Establishment of the Institute of Korean Studies and Training Plans for the Experts of Koreanology at the University of Split in Croatia). In cooperation with Hankuk University of Foreign Studies, the implementation of semester-long courses in Korean language and culture continues, and within the Center for Interdisciplinary and Korean Studies, further implementation of interdisciplinary research in the field of cultural studies, publication of new issues of the journal Cross Cultural Studies Review, and organization of an international scientific conference are planned.

Members of the project team: prof. dr. sc. Boris Škvorc, izv. prof. dr. sc. Gloria Vickov, izv. prof. dr. sc. Antonela Marić, dr. sc. Brian Willems, dr. sc. Srećko Jurišić, dr. sc. Simon Ryle, dr. sc. Slobodan Jokić, prof. dr. Kim Sang Hun, prof. dr. sc. Marko Dragić, prof. dr. sc. Marina Marasović-Alujević, Ivona Zebić Mitrović.