

Croatian Studies, Andragogy, Philosophy and Culturology – aligning standards with the Croatian Qualifications Framework Register - KAFKa- (European Social Fund – Effective Human Resources)

Coordinating institution: Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Rijeka (FHSS)

Project timeframe: 2019 - 2022

Partner institutions: University of Josip Juraj Strossmayer in Osijek, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Pula, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Split, University of Rijeka (Physics Department), Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Zagreb, Catholic Faculty of Theology in Zagreb, Faculty of Croatian Studies in Zagreb, Rijeka 2020 d.o.o., Institute of Philosophy, Rijeka's First Croatian Grammar School, Molekula – Alliance of Associations, The Public College of Rijeka (institution for education and culture), The Croatian Society for Applied Linguistics, Nikola Tesla Elementary School.

Project goal: The purpose of the KAFKa project is to align the educational offer with the principles of the Croatian Qualifications Framework, social needs and the needs of the labor market in the field of Croatian studies, andragogy, philosophy and cultural studies. The project seeks to design and develop a new study program in andragogy, design and develop occupational standards and qualification standards for Croatian studies, philosophers and cultural studies, improve the existing study programs in Croatian studies, philosophy and cultural studies in accordance with the developed occupational and qualification standards, improve the system of quality assurance of higher education at FHSSRI and partner institutions and improve teaching activities at FHSSRI through a series of activities and the establishment and equipping of 4 new laboratories.

Members of the project team at FHSS - ST: Marita Brčić Kuljiš, Tanja Brešan Ančić